

LAUDS HEARST FOR WARNING TO AMERICANS

Soterios Nicholson Commends
Publisher for Appeal on
Near East Situation.

By SOTERIOS NICHOLSON.

Greek-American Lawyer, and President
Near Eastern Information Bureau.

Written Expressly for Universal Service.

The appeal of William Randolph Hearst to the American people, published last Friday, we consider the most solemn warning of Christianity and civilization to her sons and daughters throughout the world: the most valiant and far-sighted war cry of America to Europe and humanity against the powers of darkness.

The essence of this warning is that the United States must assume the role of the watchman of Jerusalem, the role of the faithful sentinel who stood on the high walls of the city and sounded the trumpet: "To arms, the enemy is at the gates." Ours is the duty to save the city of civilization from the invasion of the Moslem Turks, the Asiatic barbarians. These prophetic words are characteristic of real America, the defender of freedom, justice, peace, and progress, and we rejoice that the man who utters these words is the most characteristic representative of the spirit of America. This is the spirit that saved the soul of Europe in the Great War.

Behold the Turk striking again at the European gates, the Dardanelles and Bosphorus, eager to carry the torch and the sword to old Byzantium and Thrace. "The hideous cruelty and savage bloodthirstiness of Oriental armies are made clear."

And now, "where are the bulwarks of Europe's safety and civilization?" The faithful sentinel cries out to the people of the city, to the Christians of America, to the beneficiaries of occidental civilization, to draw and center their attention on the Near Eastern crisis. The prophet is warning us to open our eyes, to see and realize that what happened to Smyrna and Ionia is bound to happen to Constantinople and Thrace, and that what happens to Europe "may some time happen on our own shores."

This is the time for all men and women of our country to answer the challenge of Islam, to accept the supreme responsibility imposed upon them. This is the time for all of us to do our duty to protect our faith and civilization, to protect ourselves from this horrible race and religious struggle, "the cruellest and bloodiest kind of struggle," the Turkish war.

JUSSERAND TO STAY DESPITE RECALL RUMOR

Political Enmity Believed
Cause of Reports That Ambassador Will Lose Job.

By HARRY L. ROGERS.

International News Service.

Little credence was placed here today in revised reports that Jules Jusserand, the French Ambassador, now on vacation in France, would not return to his post in the United States.

While it is known that Jusserand has persisted enemies who for years have circulated rumors of his recall, officials here stated that the Ambassador probably is in a stronger position with the French government now than he has been for years.

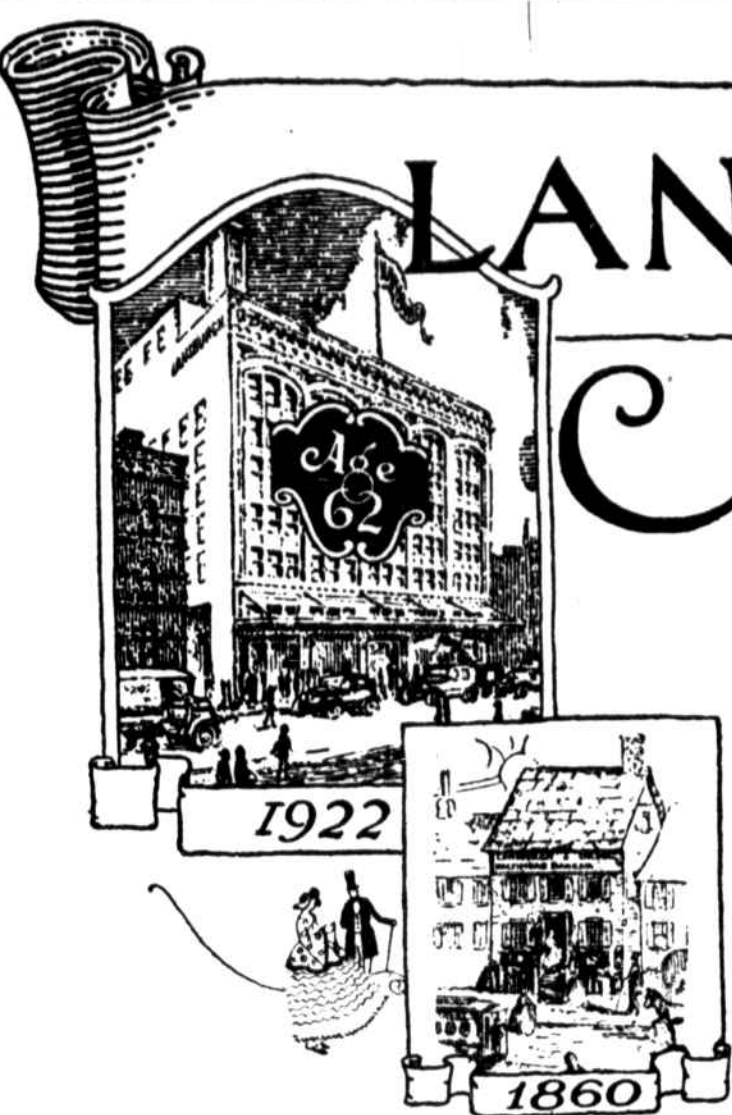

Predictions were made today in official and diplomatic circles that he will return to Washington unless some radically different alignment of political forces should occur in France.

During the nineteen years that Jusserand has held the Washington post, making him the dean of the diplomatic corps here, reports have been in circulation at least a dozen times that he was to be ousted.

Rene Viviani, former Premier, and a member of the French delegation to the Washington armistice conference, is regarded distinctly unfriendly to Jusserand. Viviani is said to blame Jusserand for the fact that France during an important stage of the negotiations at the conference was placed in an unpropitious attitude, and he is understood to have recommended the withdrawal of Jusserand.

Louis Loucheur, who was minister of the devastated regions under Premier Briand, has been mentioned as a possible successor to Jusserand, but all information here indicates that Jusserand is in favor with Premier Poincaré. It is known, also, that M. Poincaré, who is regarded in direct line for the position of minister of finance, has been exceedingly well-pleased with the manner in which Jusserand is received in official Washington.

Jusserand is now at his home near Lyons.
